

LONELY SKIES

Oh lonely skies
You're feeling so blue
come into my eyes
and I will cry for you
(2x)

I know a girl
she doesn't know me
are we casted in different films and seen on the same screen ?
I'll teach your dog how to speak and hear it all out about you I want a sleepless night o-only with you

Oh lonely skies
come into my eyes
and I will cry for you

I knew a girl
she didn't know me
it took all my life just for shadowing her from the dump to the sea now she's following in the wake of foodrests and waving hands forever disappearing
with the shrinking ship instrumental

Oh lonely skies
come into my eyes
and I will cry for you
Oh lonely skies
